

Free condoms and lube

Whatever your age, gender, or sexual orientation you can get free contraception with your Union of Students' advice service

If you're aged 18-24 then you're entitled to free condoms, dams, and lube with a C-Card. Or if you're over 24, your Union can provide free condoms.

The Union of Students' advice team provides a free, independent, confidential advice and support service for all University of Derby students. This includes Buxton and Leek College students, Access, University of Derby Online Learners, and students studying at partnership colleges around the world.

Free contraception

C-Card registration and collection

You can email us at advice@derbyunion.co.uk. You can pop to info point to see if one of our advisors are free (if not they'll let you know a time when they are). You can also visit yoursexualhealthmatters.org.uk/contraception/c-card to see the various other collection points around Derby.

Over 25s contraception collection

Book in with one of our advisors at derbyunion.co.uk/advice/onlinebooking Or Pop to our Info Point at Kedleston Road to speak with an advisor.

We have a wide variety of condoms available including latex free, extra large, trim, glow in the dark, delay, flavoured, and extra safe.

Please note condom type is subject to availability.

Free STI testing

You can get a free chlamydia testing kit from the stations around the Derby campus, or by speaking with the advice team. You can also call Derbyshire Sexual Health Services on 0800 328 3383.

Buxton students can pop into the Union Offices (DO/G22 and DO/G23) or look out for Union Pop-up Stands through the year.

Chesterfield students can register and collect from the Union advice staff on campus every other Tuesday; plus look out for our regular pop up events in the refectory! Alternatively, you can email advice@derbyunion.co.uk.
